COME NOW, Gary Spackman, Interim Director, and the Idaho Department of Water Resources (“IDWR”), and respectfully move this Court, pursuant to Idaho Appellate Rule 34(b), for an order allowing IDWR to file a brief in excess of fifty pages, but not to exceed sixty (60) pages. IDWR does not seek a filing extension for briefing. While the briefing schedule is currently suspended, IDWR is prepared to file its respondent’s brief on July 16, 2010.

STATEMENT IN SUPPORT OF MOTION

On April 1, 2010, counsel for the Ground Water Users filed a Motion to File Brief in Excess of Fifty (50) Pages. The Ground Water Users explained that “this appeal involves numerous issues of first impression . . . [and that] [w]ithout an extension of the briefing page limit, the Ground Water Users are concerned the Court will not receive a sufficient explanation of relevant facts and history to properly inform its decision.” Id. at 2-3. Particularly, the Ground Water Users stated a need for additional pages to fully brief “the monumental Swan Falls Agreement” Id. at 3. On April 30, 2010, the Court granted the Ground Water Users’ request to file a brief not to exceed seventy-five (75) pages.

IDWR Respondents find themselves in a similar position. Due to the nature and breadth of the Ground Water Users’ Opening Brief, IDWR cannot fully respond without a ten (10) page extension.

IDWR therefore respectfully requests that the page limit for its brief be increased to sixty

(60) pages.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 8th day of July, 2010.
