Dear Ms. Graves,

I have just received your email concerning the Marty Goldsmith application. I have been directed by administration to only accept these types of requests from the active representative of the application. In the case of the Goldsmith application, that representative on record is Mr. Scott King. In order to avoid miscommunication between our staff, the consultant and the applicant, we have asked that only one person be the spokesperson for an application. This is explained in Administrative Transfer Memo #24. I have spoken to my supervisor concerning your request and the request has been DENIED. However, I will give Mr. King until Friday, 9/28/2007, to send a written request for more time with an explanation why a second extension of time is necessary. If the request or information requested is not received by 9/28/2007, our office will reject or deny the application. The applicant will be able to refile the application at a latter time, when your office has compiled the needed information.

If your firm or the applicant would like to change the main contact for this application, they can supply us with a written letter or other type of documentation showing that the representative has changed. Please inform me if you would like to change the representative from Mr. King to Ms. Graves. The applicant should be included in this decision, and supply a signature or letter of acknowledgement if you do change consultants.
