- ___ A completed Notice of Claim to a Water Right form (get the claim number from the Idaho Department of Water Resources (IDWR)).
- ___ Identify the base property.
- ___ A document that establishes an owner of the base property perfected a stock water right on federal land.
 - If the stockwater use on federal land predates the Taylor Grazing Act (June 28, 1934), you must submit evidence of grazing on federal land in support of the claimed priority date.
 - If the stockwater use on federal land first occurred after the Taylor Grazing Act, you must submit evidence of authority to graze stock on federal land—either a copy of the original grazing permit associated with the base property for the place of use claimed, or, if a copy of the original grazing permit cannot be located, the earliest grazing permit available.
- ___ A chain of title for the base property establishing that the water rights were not reserved or severed* from the base property, starting with the person who perfected the stockwater right on federal land and ending with you. (Warranty deed, court decree, contract of sale, land patents, etc.)
 - * If the water rights were severed from the base property, however, provide documentation showing when and how you obtained ownership of the water rights and identify the new base property to which they are appurtenant.
- ___ A copy of the current grazing permit associated with the base property for the place of use claimed.
- ___ A map of the grazing allotment.
- ___ If you are aware of water rights appurtenant to the place of use you are claiming (the grazing allotment) that were decreed to a federal agency in the SRBA, submit a list of the water right numbers for those decreed rights.

Note: One check (maximum $100.00) made out to IDWR for all of the de minimis stockwater-only claims filed by a claimant must be sent with a motion and notice of claim to the SRBA Court. See Idaho Code § 42-1414.
