Mr. Armacost asked if it was decided at the Lewiston meeting that the policy of the board was not to rent additional water this year, additional meaning what was contracted prior to that meeting. Chairman Rigby responded by saying that nothing had been presented to the Board for that. Mr. Anderson recalled the additional 4700 acre-feet from entities who responded to the Board's letter of intent to lease and sell that was mailed in the December 2004 Board solicitation. Beyond that the Board is not interested in leasing any more water. Chairman Rigby said that the issue remains of what is the final resolution of the lease option to purchase with
