

Draft

2-1-2010

(7) The legislature recognizes that incidental ground water recharge, consistent with House Bill 264, which occurs as a result of the exercise of surface water irrigation water rights, is an important component of the Eastern Snake Plain water supply. It is the intent of the legislature that the ESPA Plan includes a performance based program that encourages recharge, including annual or multi-year contracts with participating canals.